

Create Your Last Will and Testament in Minutes

If you die without making a valid Last Will and Testament, you will lose control over who your assets are given to, who will take care of your children; and you risk having your estate substantially depleted due to the huge legal and other professional fees associated with intestate administration.

Making a valid Last Will and Testament is the only way to ensure that your property passes to people of your choosing rather than to persons appointed by the Courts. A legal Will will also save your estate thousands of dollars in unnecessary intestate administration expenses.

How to make a Last Will and Testament:

- Appointing Guardians for Your Children
- Appoint Trustees and Executors
- Make Gifts to your Loved Ones
- Create a Trust for Your Spouse or Children
- Dispose of the Remainder of Your Estate
